Parish of Saint Anthony of Padua

Our Parish Newsletter

20th October 2024

God is love: He who dwells in love, dwells in God, and God in them. In Jesus Christ we see how God loves us.

A warm welcome to everyone from
Fr. Maximillian McKeown, OFM Conv, Parish Priest
Rev. Simon South, Deacon

"Never let go of our faith" (Hebrews)

Just like any relationship, the intensity and primacy ebbs and flows. We have moments of overwhelming passion and connectedness and we have times of feeling distant, as we priorities the stuff and chaos of our life, the same is as true in our relationship with family and loved ones as it is with our relationship with God. But we hold tight to the ones we love and we draw back and reconnect through the journey of life.

The second reading today comes from the Book of Hebrews. Written for the Jewish converts and in particular to the priests . It captures one of the dilemmas that we have faced over the last two thousand years and in all likelihood, will face for the next two thousand; allowing our faith, our relationship with God through His Son to slip out of focus and potentially drift away.

But as we are reminded , Christ understands, because He is both true God and true Man. He has genuinely experienced all the challenges and dilemmas that we face and will face, because "He has been tempted in every way that we are " (Heb4:15), In all things Jesus knows!. He sees us, He loves us, and if we turn to Him, He forgives us.

Living our faith through action

Just a thought...

This weekend we are reminded again of the battle we all face between worldly desires and giving ourselves to the glory of God and the promise of eternity.

A key weapon in this battle can be captured in one word, humility. Humility that puts God's will before ours, and humility in understanding that we cannot achieve anything of true value in our lives without the grace of God through the Holy Spirit. Humility overcomes pride and ego. Something James and John struggled with in our Gospel reading today, wanting to be treated in a special way.

A way of freeing the Spirit within us and strengthening that sense of humility, is something which has fallen out of fashion in the Church today, and that is the daily "examination of conscience".

As we settle down for the evening, spending a few moments of prayerful reflection on the happenings of the day, looking at where God has been present during the day, considering what we can do better tomorrow and giving thanks for the blessings we have received, while asking for help in the things we are battling with.

As we grow in the awareness of God's presence in our daily lives we become ever more conscious of the words we say each day in the Lord's prayer about God's will and our submission to it. We also embolden the sentiment of the words we say at Mass—"Lord I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word

The quieter
you become the more you can hear.

Ita's memory book.

We will be sending the memory book that we created at our last Parish event to Ita's family in the coming week. If anyone would like to add their comments before we send this, you will find the book at the back of the Church after Sunday Mass.

Thank You

Following the Parish appeal for the CAFOD day of fasting , we would like to say thank you for raising £211 which has been sent to CAFOD this week.

Our thanks also go to Val and Jenny, our Parish CAFOD reps for their ongoing focus, support and guidance

Our Scripture Group meets on Mondays at The Hub on the Hill, from 3.30pm - 5pm to explore the Scripture readings for the forthcoming Sunday and reflect on their meaning in our everyday lives. The Sunday Liturgy sheets will be available, with Bibles and commentaries for reference, so just come as you are. A small donation towards the room hire is appreciated.

Parish Safeguarding Representative

The safety and well being of all our Parish Family is a central priority for us here at St Anthony's. Should you have any concern that you feel unable to raise with Fr Max or Deacon Simon our Parish Safeguarding Rep will be happy to speak to you in total confidence.
